

ABOUT

With the inception of his love towards instruments at a very young age, Indian producer Anish Ponna has established as an extraordinary artist. His love for Electronic music started at the age of 16 and by the age of 18, he became competent in Electronic Music Production and Disc Jockey. Not only he plays instruments like Keyboard, Guitar, Drums, or Violin but he also adds a glimmer of uniqueness to each song he plays in his sets or produces. Anish's music captured the world's attention. His interest towards Future House, Progressive House and Future Bass glitch pop engendered many fabulous songs like "New place", * "Blame" , etc. His debut single "Midnight" released in 2020, was a delight to audience worldwide.

Anish is inspired by artists like Brooks, Mesto, Harwell and Martin Garrix. This enforces his profound taste in Electronic Music. He holds a strong belief that every instrument just like a song or video conveys a story that can move a soul.

His journey of exploring many genres & aspects of music is what fuels him to experiment more and this paves a way to amazing music production from Anish. He shares a dream of travelling around the world and making his music famous all around the globe.
